Lucent

Lucent emerged from the Lumin collection, where the transparency of glass unveils gentle whispers of the world beyond. Light and the verdant leaves dance gracefully through the refraction, creating a symphony of movement and color, as each ray bends to reveals the delicate green beneath, casting fleeting patterns of life and nature's beauty. Lucent, with the Evodry effect, resonates deeply with those who seek a harmonious blend of elegance and the soft glow of light.

Mont Blanc

Mont Blanc is a timeless and elegant design, a study in graceful simplicity that elevates any space with a touch of modern architecture. In this design, the canvas of pure white marble is graced with a dance of delicate veins. These winding veins, like whispers of an ancient story, form an aesthetic composition of Brazilian quartzite. The light sparse background and the flow of the veins make Mont Blanc even more remarkable with either polished or matt finish.
