Lucent

Lucent emerged from the Lumin collection, where the transparency of glass unveils gentle whispers of the world beyond. Light and the verdant leaves dance gracefully through the refraction, creating a symphony of movement and color, as each ray bends to reveals the delicate green beneath, casting fleeting patterns of life and nature's beauty.Lucent .with the Evodry effect ,resonates deeply with those who seek a harmonious blend of elegance and the soft glow of light.

Eminent

Let's take a closer look at Eminent. This masterpiece combines the raw solidity of cement with the tactile elegance of interwoven threads where the passage of time has softly marked a heritage. Its industrial appearance is layered with a warm touch and gentle look. Through the interaction between delicacy and permanence, Eminent separates itself from conventional concrete designs and proves its potential via its five fantastic colors to match both contemporary and classic compositions.

Sovereign Cream

Sovereign Cream owes its elegance to the Pergamon Marble features, originating from Italy. The soft background that exudes purity and depth, makes Sovereign Cream an ideal choice for creating light and airy spaces. The subtle shades, sometimes referred to as honey tones, appear delicately within the texture, adding warmth to the overall design while white veins spreading over the background reveal the hidden grace in the layers of the design.

Mont Blanc

Mont Blanc is a timeless and elegant design, a study in graceful simplicity that elevates any space with a touch of modern architecture. In this design, the canvas of pure white marble is graced with a dance of delicate veins. These winding veins, like whispers of an ancient story, form an aesthetic composition of Brazilian quartzite. The light sparse background and the flow of the veins make Mont Blanc even more remarkable with either polished or matt finish.

Floor: Riven Slate Iron Relief

Riven Slate

Riven Slate is a mesmerizing creation inspired by volcanic rocks found in the east. It beautifully combines the elements of earth and water, as the magma of volcanoes meets cold waters to form captivating rock formations. This unique design is widely favored in contemporary and modern architecture, particularly for large surfaces. With its sophisticated blend of intense greys and neutral tones, Riven Slate effortlessly infuses any space with a minimal and modern style. The product's relief surface further enhances its appeal, adding depth and texture to its timeless charm and layered structure.
